offer the Cape Cod New & Old:

From the 1918 foreword The old road to the Cape is lost and with it much of the dust both of reality and romance But a new road has opened bringing every year hundreds and hundreds of automobiles and literally thousands of men and women who would otherwise never breathe the balmy air or see those windswept moors Surely we old Cape Codders must and do greet them all hospitably It is for their special welcoming that this little book is written About the Author 1888 1954
