9 of 9 review helpful By far the best Boston travel book By A Customer Last year anticipating the arrival of out of town family I bought Jeff Perk's Massachusetts Handbook I have lived in New England for 15 years but am still of course an outsider I found tons of wonderful information and suggestions in the Mass Handbook so when the Boston Handbook came out I snatched that one up too This is a great book for Jeff Perk provides interesting facts and anecdotes on everything from Boston's sidewalk art to its historic burying grounds and contemporary Celtic music scene as well as the usual coverage of dining lodging and recreation information
